|      | 1-2a | Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|      | 2b   | Grace to you and peace from God our Father.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|      | 3a   | We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|      | 3b   | when we pray for you,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|      | 4    | since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. |
|      | 9a   | And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

He hasdelivered us from the domain of darkness   andtransferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son,   inwhom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. Heis the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of allcreation. For by him all things were created, in heavenand on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones ordominions or rulers or authorities—all things werecreated through him and for him. And he is before allthings, and in him all things hold together. And he isthe head of the body, the church. He is the beginning,the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he mightbe preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God waspleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile tohimself all things, whether on earth or in heaven,making peace by the blood of his cross. |
